Dear RIPA Members:

Re: 2nd International Conference on Industrial Packaging. June 5 – 7, 2013,
Amsterdam, Netherlands

The 2nd International Conference on Industrial Packaging will take place June 5 – 7, 2013 at the NH Grand Hotel Krasnapolsky in Amsterdam, Netherlands. This event promises to be extraordinary and highly attended by container reconditioners from around the globe.

The Organizing Committee, Chaired by Mike Rooms of the UK, has put together an exceptional array of international speakers who will discuss a wide range of technical, business and regulatory matters. In addition to the business and educational aspects of this triennial event, our hosts have arranged a wonderful series of social events that will expose you to all the charms of the host city of Amsterdam.

The conference will also feature exhibits by industry suppliers and a special program for guests and accompanying persons in both the City of Amsterdam and surrounding beautiful areas.

The Second Circular is posted to the RIPA website under “Conferences” and will assist in your planning. RIPA has arranged a plant tour of Janus Vaten B.V. in nearby Oosterhout on Saturday. If you are interested in a tour, please contact the RIPA offices.

To register for the Conference and book your hotel reservations, go to: www.serred.org.

The Host Committee and Event Chairman look forward to your attendance.

With best regards,
